Light is faster than sound

My head to the ground

Mind going round

Faster than sound.

What goes up must go down

World goes around

Sun shines around

Faster than sound.

Suddenly I see your face

Faster than sound

Through the emptiness of space.

Faster than sound

You're turning my mind all around

Faster than sound

'Cause life is faster than sound.

Faster than sound

Faster than sound

Light is faster than sound

My head to the ground

Mind going round

Faster than sound.

What goes up must go down

World goes around

Sun shines around

Faster than sound.

Whoa, suddenly I see your face

Faster than sound

Through the emptiness of space.

Faster than sound

You're turning my mind all around,

Faster than sound

'Cause life is faster than sound.

Faster than sound

Faster than sound
