I've been misery'n ever since my daddy gone
I've been, honey, I've been misery'n,
Yes I have, now ever since my since my daddy gone
But I believe that it won't baby, it won't be too long
If I just could hang on yeah, until my, til my misery
Will all be gone

I, I said my rooms, you know they're so empty...
Filled up with sadness, sometimes, yeah.
MYYY, rooms are so empty...
Child, filled up with sadness, honey, sometimes...
Oh well, it just, it just moves in like the fog rolls in.
And I find I, well I can't see you, baby for my tears
Well, I've tried don't you know I've tried
Cried, cried, cried, cried, cried
Baby, now, I've been missing you
Oh, I've been missing you babe
Yeah, and it all seem to bother me
Much more that it seem it should be
So, baby, now, now, baby, now, now,
Baby, tell me why, does it have to be
Oh, so wrong for me?
I never thought I could ever want anybody
No, no ,no never did - Never did
Why am I feeling so strange?
I never, never, never needed nobody, no, no,
But maybe you could help me
Why am I feelin' so strange?
Yeah, I've got me a great, I got a great big bed,
With pillows for my head
But, lately I've been sleeping - sleeping alone
Well, I've tried, don't you know I've tried
Cried, cried, you know how I've cried
Baby, I've been missing you
Tried, don't you know I've tried
Cried, cried, you know how I cried
Baby, now, I've been missing you
Tried don't you know I've tried
Cried, cried, you know how I've cried
Baby, I've been missing you
