From the Norwest is the Cascades
There's all different landscapes
From man made lakes,
to land flat as Finnish pancakes

Somewhere off the trans-Canada highway I stay with pride as big as our crime rate

Just across the bridge, we got a reservation
Our hobbies are hockey and getting wasted
off of malted hops till we can barely walk

and i don't know
Terry Fox, but I can show you where he stopped
On ice skates we hold
it down for Canada,
with the most pro
hockey players per capital

Nowadays it seems that's all that we talk about
that's just the way it is when we walk around
this hockey town

Standing at the top of Mount Mckay

feeling proud to say,
that I'm from
Thunder Bay

(Pre-Chorus)

Now, from Current River to Westfort
and everywhere in between
I wanna hear my whole city sing with me...like...
(Chorus)

Round my hometown,
memories are fresh
Round my hometown,
memories are fresh
Round my hometown,
memories are fresh
Round my hometown
Round my hometown

(Verse 2)

Shhh.. can I have some peace and quiet
for the sleeping giant and the people that are still diving down in silver islet

the mosquitoes
they're still a bitin' at the mission island

you see these people
smiling but please
keep in mind, it's...
where people rely on paper mills to pay
their bills
work their whole life
and their jobs
unstable still

I know it isn't fair, but start giving cheers Cause we're still living here, still sipping

crystal beer

standing outside till
our toes feel numb
just waiting till that cold chill comes

The same place Steve Stills met Neil Young
You can still hear them in your ear drums

Superior by Nature
you might think it
sounds cliché
