How may I serve?
How may I serve?

I remember when I was just a boy who was trying to trust the world around me
And who was in it
What I found was so profound
The people there were all around with the teachers that helped me on my journey

You're my, you're my, you're my Æ&A!

What was a boy to do living with a father who did not know love or how to be a dad?
Now that I'm older
I can learn to feel, can learn to cry
Well, living with myself it ain't so bad

You're my, You're my, You're my, my inspiration that keeps me alive
Won't you try, Won't you try, Won't you try
To pass the candle that burns deep inside
Let us make the world today a better place for the human race
To inspire someone else like you have me Won't forget where I came from What I have been
What I have learned
What keeps me striving to be a better man is:
Love, love, I give you love
This four letter word from up above
It is something the world needs so much more of

Who I am is just a man
Trying to help, trying to plan
The seed for someone else to grow in Reach down into your heart
And give today, begin to start
To love one another so someone else can show it You're my, You're my, You're my, my inspiration that
keeps me alive
Won't you try, Won't you try, Won't you try

To pass the candle that burns deep inside
You're my, You're my, You're my, my inspiration that
keeps me alive
Won't you try, Won't you try, Won't you try
To pass the candle that burns deep inside
You're my, You're my, You're my, my inspiration that
keeps me alive
Won't you try, Won't you try, Won't you try
To pass the candle that burns deep inside
