It's a perfect beginning
But it happens that way
Who's the one that you're killing
I want his name

I read the news and they lied about you
They missed the point of it all
I never knew that much to be with your name
Must be a fortunate demon

Embrace me
Don't break me
'Cause this is all I wanted

It's like a dream to be happy
I never thought this far
And all the sweet desperation
I want it all

I read the news and they lied about you
They missed the point of it all
I never knew that much to be with your name
Must be a fortunate demon
