I wake up in the morning,
Don't feel like being awake,
But I gotta go to school,
One of the things i hate,
Another thing is my house,
It's not like its the worst,
But ever time I'm in it,
I feel like I'm in a hearse,
When I get to school,
Everybody stares,I think somethings wrong,
But God knows I don't care,
Every time I arrive,
I fall into a pit,
I guess that explains,

Why my life's full of shit,
Why do I live,
Like I'm living in a cave,
Even when I'm good,
People tell me to behave,
I'm the best i can be,
That's what nobody sees,
So everyone please,
Let Me Be.
