I wake up in the morning and I grab my clothes,
I kiss you on the cheek before I,
before I hit the road and I'm, Headin out

Headin out
Headin out, Lord knows I hate to go

I get this sinking feeling when I say goodbye
'Cause every time you lose a little more, A little more twinkle in your eye
Headin out
Headin out
Headin out, Lord knows I hate to go

It's unbearable tonight,
It's unbearable tonight,
'Cause I can't shake these dreams of you tonight
