Hey Sam, I've been wondering
When I might catch a break
It seems all my friends
They got things going
And me
I'm just standing in the rain

Hey Sam, I've been thinking
If I'd acted out on my heart
Instead of my head
Would she be with me?
With her arms around me?
Just the two of us
Standing in the rain

Hey Sam, I'm just a living
The best that I can
Anyway, the past is passed
Forget about those yesterdays
There will be new opportunities
To stand in the rain
