From the day we're given this gift of life the search begins to find our voice inside if we listen to our hearts the deepest part of who we are we can't go wrong cuz love will be our guide

There were times I wondered what forever was Then you walked in and suddenly I knew Every day we live and breathe
A part of you and you of me Forever is a dream that just came true

I searched my life, I searched my heart
I came so close to giving up
I searched the world, I searched my soul
I thought I'd never be whole
Now I've found that there is so much more
I know it's you, I've been saving forever for

If we have faith in love it will lead us and we'll be free to be just who we are forever you will shine in every corner of my mind lighting up the dark just like the stars

I searched my life, I searched my heart
I came so close to giving up
I searched the world, I searched my soul
I thought I'd never be whole
Now I've found that there is so much more
I know it's you, I've been saving forever for

No matter where life leads You're all I'll ever need It's you and me together.. forever

I searched my life, I searched my heart
I came so close to giving up
I searched the world, I searched my soul
I thought I'd never be whole
Now I've found that there is so much more

I know it's you, I've been saving forever for
