Teardrops Don't Lie

Artist: Justin Trevino

She just sits there in the dim lights
With a drink in her hand
And the lonely look upon her face
Would melt the heart of any man
And the trail of smoke from her
Cigarette shows the torture in her eyes
And I know she's got a broken heart
Cause teardrops don't lie

Teardrops won't let her hide
The hurt down in her soul
They'll tell the world she's lonely
And her heart is turning cold
And as she takes a drink
Her trembling hands show
The hurt she tries's to hide
And I know she's got a broken heart
Cause teardrops don't lie

Teardrops won't let her hide
The hurt down in her soul
They'll tell the world she's lonely
And her heart is turning cold
As she takes a drink
Her trembling hands show
The hurt she tries to hide
And I know she's got a broken heart
Cause teardrops don't lie

Yes, I know she's got a broken heart
Cause teardrops don't lie
