All you ever wanted was to be someone (one)
Make it to the top, staying second to none (none)
Now you figured out what the name of the game is
You wanna live the life of the rich and the famous
All you ever wanted was to be somebody (body)
See the flashing lights and the cars and the money
(money)
You want everyone to know what your name is
So you can live the life of the rich and the famous

This is it, you can't just quit now
Just because you've had enough of it now
It's time to get down, time to commit now
Get this shit done, and fulfill your own vow
It's a rough journey to top of the game
But you're sick of the same life day after day
All of your pain, it won't be in vain
You'll be the king and this is your reign
This is what you're here for, it's time to face it
You know that there's only one path to greatness
It's time to get away from all the same shit
The prize is in sight, all you've got to do is claim it
Haters keep on hatin, sayin you won't make it
But you're done with waitin, you've got to shake it
This is your chance, and you've got to take it
You think you're ready and you're not mistaken

All you ever wanted was to be someone (one)
Make it to the top, staying second to none (none)
Now you figured out what the name of the game is
You wanna live the life of the rich and the famous
All you ever wanted was to be somebody (body)
See the flashing lights and the cars and the money
(money)
You want everyone to know what your name is
So you can live the life of the rich and the famous

And when you reach the top, you know what they'll say
You're just another hot shot, another cliché
But you'll look at tomorrow and not yesterday
And you'll never go astray cause you'll always know the way

And you'll always know that you're meant for the glory
And when you die, you'll live on in the stories
Your name will be immortal cause legends never die
No one will remember you as just another guy
Someone in the future will tell you that you're fly
And you'll simply reply that that is implied
And you'll be idolized, living the high life
While riding on your hype with no end of it in sight
You won't follow trends, you'll be the trendsetter
And they'll call you the best, but you'll only get better
To rise above the norm, it was your life's endeavor
An average man dies, but a legend lives forever

All you ever wanted was to be someone (one)
Make it to the top, staying second to none (none)
Now you figured out what the name of the game is
You wanna live the life of the rich and the famous
All you ever wanted was to be somebody (body)
See the flashing lights and the cars and the money
(money)
You want everyone to know what your name is
So you can live the life of the rich and the famous

You feel like you're just like everyone else
And you got no one to blame but yourself
You know that you could be so much more
So what the fuck are you waiting for?
This is something that you can't ignore
No one else can come open your doors
No one else can do the things you've done
So go out there and be someone cause

All you ever wanted was to be someone (one)
Make it to the top, staying second to none (none)
Now you figured out what the name of the game is
You wanna live the life of the rich and the famous
All you ever wanted was to be somebody (body)
See the flashing lights and the cars and the money
(money)
You want everyone to know what your name is
So you can live the life of the rich and the famous
