I rock (I rock)
I roll (I roll)
The illest mofo you know fo sho, cause
I run this show
I don't go slow
Try to keep up with my hustle and flow

Every single rapper has that song that makes him badass
But every time it's half-assed, and I'm not gonna have that Cause I'm a real class act, and my rhymes are abstract
Nice guys will finish last, and that's just a sad fact
But I'm already passed that, it's something to laugh at I'm here to add tact cause most rappers lack that Gonna make an impact, fast like a heart attack
If you wanna talk smack, my lyrics talk back
They say you got a bad rap, but I don't know about that You're lucky as a black cat, I'll use you like a scratch pad
Hurt you like a car crash, forget you like a flashback Shun you like an outcast and pretty much that's that I'm on the fast track, I carry like a half back Gonna make the news like a bomb dropped in Baghdad
I'll make the fast cash with my unsurpassed craft
Add and subtract stacks, take you back to math class

I rock (I rock)
I roll (I roll)
The illest mofo you know fo sho, cause
I run this show
I don't go slow
Try to keep up with my hustle and flow (yo)
I rock (I rock)
I roll (I roll)
The illest mofo you know fo sho, cause
I run this show
I don't go slow
Try to keep up with my hustle and flow

So let me tell you why I aspire to be fly

Cause I wanna cross the line between my dreams and the sky
As long as I defy, the limitations don't apply
So before I resign, I will refine the design
Cause I'm not satisfied, the rap game's gone awry
That shit that you buy's on a steep ass decline
And I'm rap's messiah, I'll turn water into wine
Turn words into rhymes into lyrics that apply
Too true to deny with a flow so divine
And the lyrics I supply will serve as the guide Give sight to the blind with advice I provide
From west to east side, to the rappers worldwide
My time has arrived, my words bona fide
They'll celebrate my coming like the fourth of July
Cause many have implied that hip-hop has died
But it will survive as long as I am alive

I rock (I rock)
I roll (I roll)
The illest mofo you know fo sho, cause
I run this show
I don't go slow
Try to keep up with my hustle and flow (yo)
I rock (I rock)
I roll (I roll)
The illest mofo you know fo sho, cause
I run this show
I don't go slow
Try to keep up with my hustle and flow
