Fire of love and passion of martyr
nowhere to run from it passages through time
nothing there's to hide feeling the wind within...

It's real emotions
it's real life
it's love that will last..

Chorus:
There's reasons to perhaps find things in life that make you wonder why this can't be the end tonight there's times to remember just why we're here even though there's many defaults we should never give up in our love...
Decedents of precedents discoveries of happiness nothing that no one admires you are the door that opens the heart

something that I desire...

(chorus)// break // (chorus)

There's many ways to feel the joy of life no need to be sad
knowing we're alive
life can be beautiful this way now let the real emotions burst out from your heart...
