Many encounters came along made us wonder of our love if we loved each other we'd survive and we did...
We developed what we knew that was hidden way below
now it's striking hard enough you see..

Chorus:

There's no reason to turn back now
There's no reason to turn back now
There's no reason to turn back now
As our love it's much more..
There's no reason to turn back now
There's no reason to turn back now
There's no reason to turn back now
No more, no more...

There's no day that we do not think about each other way too much we are simply made for one another.. if there was to pick a line
if it's you or someone else
well my love you know I'm yours forever..

There is no reason why to believe that there should be more to see we have gone through every phase that we can...

(Chorus)

There's no reason no reason to turn back now we have made it through so much
we have made it through so much...

There's no reason to turn back now
There's no reason to turn back now
There's no reason to turn back now
As our love it's much more..

(Chorus)
