Colors contrast emptiness
Your eyes are icy cold
I know you less and less I'm told
Desert canyons echo

Waiting for the smallest jest
Some hope which I may hold
To clear the darkness bring console
Desert canyons echo

I remember when
The slightest touch of skin
Brought us to a warm embrace

I licked and kissed your eyes
We melted into sighs
Lying snuggly in a daze

Matisse puppets
Dressed in velvet
Prance around my head
Dancing as if wed
Circling freeling
Whispering soft
I love you my Friend
