Verse

Snowflakes kissing ground
A silent touch
Crystal white

Pine wind blows over hilltops
The shadows blush
An owl takes flight

Deep in the forest of the night
Where fireflies dance and tree tops wave
In sweet surrender
Oh, sweet surrender

Verse

In melting moments
Teardrops fall
Softer than the morning dew

A rosebud blossoms red
A robin sings
The day starts new

A winding path of glimmer glow
Never to know which way to go
So I surrender
Yes I surrender

Refrain:

Glimmer glisten glow
Fire melting snow
Burning in the night
Oh ancient forest

Feeding the fire as I go
It
