Lying here
Close to you
Floating now
On waters so blue

Waves come in
And slap the shore
We take a swim and Dive for more

Plunging deep
You melt my fears
Bathing me in
Your salty tears

The angels call
Us out to sea
We're sailing forth
Uncharted destiny

Refrain:
You're my deepest ocean
You're a stormy sea
A hurricane in motion
Washing over me

Take me to deep waters
To another shore
I hear the mighty ocean
Release its mighty roar

Verse:
My bones are soft
My teardrops fall
I tremble now
Hitting all my walls

I'm afraid
We're so far out
Shore line gone
I start shout

Lying here
Close to you
Floating Now on Waters Blue

Waves come in and Slap the shore
We take a swim and dive for more

Refrain:
You're my deepest ocean
You're a stormy sea
A hurricane in Motion
Washing over me

Take me to deep waters
To another shore
I hear the mighty ocean

Bridge:
I feel like I am drowning
You seem to swallow me
The angels they are calling
As you pull me out to sea

Refrain:
You're my deepest ocean
You're a stormy sea
A hurricane in Motion
Washing over me

Take me to deep waters
To another shore
I hear the mighty ocean

You're my deepest ocean
You're a stormy sea
A hurricane in Motion
