Draw a line in the sand.
Draw a star. Draw a circle on my hand.
Just because, so I know I won't forget.

Turn the volume to three.
Hit the wipers and turn onto the street.
Just because, so I know I won't forget.

Stunned and shaken/trying to sleep
Try to read some. I can't.
You know, you know, I never will.

Set the sun on the porch.
Leave the air for the music from below.
Just because, so I go to face the work tomorrow
Excavate the foulest place, breathing next to me.
I know, I know
I'll spend a long time letting you go.

Trailing - linger out in the sun.
Take bearings from a set in stone spot
Point forward and move away at the pace of sound.
