Though it took me by surprise
One by one I realized
There was something I could do

I lost my way.
That's what she said
Back to the 101
If we don't know
Somewhere to go
Back to the 101

I never said to feel relaxed
I never said to love me back
What was I next to you?

In my mind it all goes back
Lost control of what I had
All my thoughts left one by one

I lost my way.
That's what she said
Back to the 101
Back to the one
I never won
Back to the 101

I count the one
I count the one
I count the one oh one

I know (I count the one)
I lost (I count the one)
My way (I count the one oh one)

This time (I count the one)
We'll find (I count the one)
A place (I count the one oh one)

I know (I count the one)
I lost (I count the one)
My way (I count the one oh one)

This time (I count the one)
We'll find (I count the one)
A place (I count the one oh one)
