Now I must I know
Whose the one with bones to break

She took it, she
All that I know darling
Was there is nothing left
There's nothing in my heart
Oh come in darling
We'll take it slow
Till you find out my love is gone
When it's no good together anymore
And I can only wonder what it's like

And all I know that I've done was just holding you
And all your lovers will forget
The last time no
Your not the one
You snapped my bones

But all that I know darling

There's nothing left
There's nothing in my heart
(In my heart)

Oh come in darling
We'll take it slow
Till you find out my love is gone
When it's no good together anymore
Then I can only wonder what it's like

All that I know darling
Well there's nothing left
And there's nothing in my heart
(In my heart)
Oh come in darling
We'll take it slow
Till we find out our love is gone
When it's no good together anymore
I can only wonder what it's like
