You'd better think this through
You'd better take your time
Is that what you really want
Giving away whats mine
Don't insult my intelligence
You know I ain't one of them girls who turn a blind eye and believe you better not trip over your words

Danger, Danger
I see the thick black smoke
I see the bright the flame
Burnin' our love away
Ain't that such a shame, oh
Danger, Danger
I see the bright red fire
I see the thick black cloud
Smokin' our love away, I'm about to put it out, oh

It almost makes me smile
That you could be so nieve
I know you far to well
So I know not what to believe
You got it twisted here
If you think I'm gonna to stick around I'll be a ghost, disapear so fast leaving you to figure it out

Danger, Danger
I see the thick black smoke
I see the bright the flame
Burnin' our love away
Ain't that such a shame, oh
Danger, Danger
I see the bright red fire
I see the thick black cloud
Smoking our love away, I'm about to put it out, oh

Yeah you passed my love to the left hand side
Smoked it right down to the roach
So I might as well put it out, so I might as well put it out

Yeah, you passed my loved to the left hand side.
smoked it right down to the roach
So I might as well put it out, so I might as well put it out

Danger, Danger
I see the thick black smoke
I see the bright the flame
Burnin' our love away
Ain't that such a shame, oh
Danger, Danger
I see the bright red fire
I see the thick black cloud
Smoking our love away, I'm about to put it out, oh
