wake up in da morning i got sleep in my eyes i feel bad nobody gives a damn about a black brother there's no other like my mother we speak everyday not in sense of words but pray check it 10 years ago died of brain cancer and went to heaven 1997 rollin' with tha family booya music my peeps y'all representin' runnin' everyday from the pain let it go away it's drivin' me insane not to my dying day high from the sky rain wash away my pain and maintain i can use my brain to play the game it's a shame try to figure out who i blame when a child is born mama and daddy need a change like a window needs a frame and the sugar to the cane like a baby has a name 2:35 in the night can't sleep see me struggling sheets in my bed full of sweat got to keep hustling one and one is two not three the pain will release cause in god i believe yes the only way in live to succeed is be blessed free your mind from head to toe and get dressed fresh express what you have in your chest unless you wanna put me to the test chicken breast to be or not to be is the big quest federal republic of germany of course the west now you think that you know where w're comming from wipe away your tears little sister and pray to god one day rain will come by your way don't ever loose hope nature gives and takes no fuss ashes to ashes and dust to dust
