Chorus:Nobody gets too much heaven no moreIt's much harder to come by, I am waiting in lineNobody gets too much love anymoreIt's as high as a mountain and harder to climb

Bridge:And then my life - have you seen meI am foreverEverything we are will never dieLove is such a beautiful thing

Once upon a time there was a place called earthFounded by the most powerful manMy Lord showing me the way I have to go, to growLet there be woman and a man you knowEat what you want and drink as much as canShare what you got with your other fellow manLive in harmony family freeEverybody has a chanceDespite envy and jealousyNow would you please mind your own bizDaily operation due to life is a bitchWhat's on your mind let me knowAs we roll a thousand problemsMessed up in your headControl the flow of your body your mindWe spoke beforeRunning out of timeOnly the Lord and heaven knowsDecide stand up be manAnd make it tightFight for your rightTill you get there to see the light

Chorus

Who's in charge of the mess that we madeWill be served with a platterOn the first of judgement dayFaces, faces nothing but your facesFaces, I can see your facesLonger than a showlace in caseYour never prayed to God to the G.O.D. the man himselfInventor creator Holy GhostNow ring the bellsCaptured my my soundNext customer my clienteleSee ya later see ya alligatorMake you chill relay like Anita BakerBring it down to the point and make a positive moveSo we can groove till we loose our coolMiracles happen everywhereGuided by the lightI guarantee one will come your wayAdvisable straight from the horses mouthLove, peace - I'm out

Chorus
