Hope, my Hope,
I have to go away now,
I have to go away now.

We've come to the end
And I hope I have prepared you,
I hope I have prepared you well.

You must show courage now,
Stand up and do not cry,
You must show honour now,
You must do, you must do.

You must show courage now,
Stand up and do not cry,
You must show honour now,
You stand for, you stand for us all.

No, I'm not scared,
For I was born a hunter,
For I was born a soldier.

And when I, saw your eyes,
I knew this right,
Cos they looked just like mine.

You must show courage now,
Stand up and dare not cry,
You must show honour now,
You must do, you must do.

You must show courage now,
Stand up and dare not cry,
You must show honour now,
You stand for, you stand for us all.
