If you still cannot see this
If these words leave you cold
This heart has devotion
It pulls her inwards

Cus' it's you that I think of
And it's you that I crave
And it's you that makes my heart
Burn like the sun

So what do you run from
We have but one life
Once the door has been opened
It cannot be closed

Cus' it's you that I think of
And it's you that I crave
And it's you that makes my heart
Burn like the sun

And I know that you feel it
When we are both alone
And I know that you want to
But you can let go

And like a star in the night
You left me alone
And I can wait I can wait
But darling be brave

Cus' it's you that I think of
And it's you that I crave
And it's you that makes my heart
Burn like the sun

And I know that you feel it
When we are both alone
And I know that you want to
But you can let go
