Calm down sweetheart, take the air in
Won't you smile for me?
Wipe the tears away from your eyes
It's not all that it seems

Calm down sweetheart, take the air in
Won't you smile for me?
Wipe the tears away from your eyes
It's not all that it seems

Yesterday, yesterday
Open the window
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
Let the sunlight there kiss your face
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
'Cause these days are golden, golden
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Open the window
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
Let the sunlight there kiss your face
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
'Cause these days are golden, golden, golden
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
Golden, golden

You've felt sadness, you've felt hunger
But you are still here
Make a space for all the good times
Store them in your heart

You've felt sadness, you've felt hunger
But you are still here
Make a space for all the good times
Store them in your heart

Yesterday, yesterday
Open the window
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
Let the sunlight there kiss your face
(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
'Cause these days are golden, golden

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Open the window

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Let the sunlight there kiss your face

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

'Cause these days are golden, golden, golden

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Golden, golden

This is your moment, you gotta take it in

You might just sound that you been burned

But blackened how we know

This is your moment

Yesterday, yesterday

Open the window

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Let the sunlight there kiss your face

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

'Cause these days are golden, golden

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Open the window

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

Let the sunlight there kiss your face

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)

'Cause these days are golden, golden, golden

(Yesterday, yesterday, yesterday, yesterday)
