Like a cigarette butt crushed out in the dirt I am used up and thrown away

I'm a lonesome fool I don't know how to be cool and I never learned how to flirt

But I'm not addictive and I can calm you down

I can't promise satisfaction but I like to make your heart pound

Yeah I just wanna be you lover not just some old crutch

Yeah I just wanna be your lover but I don't have that kind of luck.

I'd last longer than a few minutes I'd be better than a few puffs

and if you take me in your heart I'd be something you could trust.

Yeah I just wanna be you lover not just some old crutch

Yeah I just wanna be your lover but I don't have that kind of luck.

Yeah I just wanna be you lover not just some old crutch

Yeah I just wanna be your lover but I don't have that kind of luck.
