The Love we had's turned to concern and the fire we shared no longer burns

And now I'll prove that I'm a man I'll either walk or here I'll stand

Beside you

The light in your eyes has gone dim is it me thinking about her Or are you thinking of him?

Well I guess we'll fall apart no big deal just broken hearts Inside you

Ahh you can take it easy but sometimes that just won't do

There won't be no justice served the jury is guilty they'll get what they deserve

The hangman ties us all a noose
The guilty walk with no excuse

Beside you Inside you
