Awake morning dawn opens up my eyes and I realize that you are gone
Envisioning the lines and the times when your body held the warmth of mine Seeking my solitude me and my imaginary friend How have you been Looking likes it's just you and me again

Well I know a place where we can go
I know a thousand places I haven't shown
you
I know a place where we can go
I see your shadow I see your face every time I close my eyes
So how are we cutting these ties
When you are everywhere
You are everywhere
You are Everywhere that I never wanted you to be
You are every direction and every staring face I see
You are Everywhere, everywhere

So put the bottle down baby Let me take a sip from your sugar lips
They're so wonderful flavorful magic to me when you're taking your stand Like the proudest prize in the box you know you're my M$M Nose to nose and ears to toes melting right from my mouth into my hands

Well I know a place where we can go
I know a thousand places I haven't shown
you
I know a place where we can go
I see your shadow I see your face every time I close my
eyes
So how are we cutting these ties
When you are everywhere
You are everywhere
You are Everywhere that I never wanted you to be
You are every direction and every staring face I see
You are Everywhere, everywhere

I've been through heartbreak
No highs can come without lows
These losing battles I can't take So now it just goes to show
That you're everywhere

You are everywhere
You are Everywhere that I never wanted you to be
You are every direction and every staring face I see
You are Everywhere, everywhere
