no more wishing wells that never come around
no more growing trees without a ground

one, to take
one, to fly
one, to make use of all the treasure inside
one, too late
act surprised
one, to play
and say it was just in your mind

on and on, hearts burn determined one to take (breathe in a neptune sky) fly (through hands of animals)

play awake
it killed the craving for the remedy they made you buy

on and on, hearts burn determined
here's a placebo
pick a placebo
no more sapphires burned

one to take
one, to fly
one, to play
here's a placebo

on and on, hearts burn determined
