Hand in hand joins incompatible
Passing through mass
Full of us
I want to want you like I wanted him

I want to find pure childish glance
I want to find love
I want to feel you inside
Yourself
Why am I wasting my time
Why am I wasting my time
Why am I wasting my time
On you babe

Your hands give pureness
Give my imagination
Your hands touch the untouched
Your selfish amorous hands

My hands give honesty
Give your dream
My hands give what others never did
My selfish amorous hands
Why am I wasting my time
Why am I wasting my time
Why am I wasting my time
On you babe

My baby missed the party
