Can I sneak into your pullover wouldn't it be warmer I could finally feel your breath beside my naked neck
You could lose yourself in my eyes I know you want that for a long time

It's hard to cover up this secret nerve that's too obvious
just be quiet
and let the silence feed us with tales just let this silence feed us with tales those tales, I promise, will never end ...

You're too close
and I'm too close

No, you cannot predict my behaviour
No, I cannot
predict your behaviour
