Despite of constant motion
He remains still
And I can see his dark shine
He remains still
Confusion issued from
Coincidences unrelated
From fierce strive to surface
The dark ponds
Undo the bonds

The fear clings to perfect duality
From which the lonely flower will spring
The desire is unseen,
Unspeakable, untouchable,
Convinceable only through giving
Convinceable through pain
Of innate separation
That rended the circle complete
This circle is complete
Despite of constant motion
He remains still
And I can see his dark shine
He remains still

His thoughts and actions are pure
Sometimes misunderstood
Forced terribly to change patterns
Sometimes misunderstood

At least he found sense and beauty
Dressed in one unique colour
The desire is unseen,
Unspeakable, untouchable,
Convinceable only through giving
Convinceable through pain
Of innate separation
That rended the circle complete
This circle is complete
