I can't be your weather
'Cuz if it rains then it rains
I can't be your lover
'Cuz the feelings would change

I can't be the wind
'Cuz the wind blows too free
But if you want a true companion
Don't forget about me

Don't forget about me
When your heart's in the shade
When there's no one to hold you
And you've fallen from grace

When the spotlights come blind you
And you can no longer see
I'll be right there beside you
Don't forget about me

Your friends never leave you
They're a two way street
They'll always believe in you
When you've ceased to believe

And I'll still feel the same
If you're a friend in need
'Cuz I'll always love you
Don't forget about me

Don't forget about me
When your heart's in the shade
When there's no one to hold you
And you've fallen from grace

When the spotlights come blind you
And you can no longer see
I'll be right there beside you
Don't forget about me

Don't forget about me
When your heart's in the shade

When there's no one to hold you
And you've fallen from grace

When the spotlights come blind you
And you can no longer see
I'll be right there beside you
Don't forget about me
Don't forget about me
