I am leaving Mississippi in the evening rain
These Delta towns wear satin gowns
In a high beamed frame

Loretta Lynn guides my hands through the radio
Where would I be in times like these
Without the songs Loretta wrote?

'Cause when you can't find a friend
You've still got the radio
When you can't find a friend
You've still got the radio

The radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Listen to the radio
Radio

I left a handsome, two stepped
Good ole boy in Tennessee
Now, he's sittin' on the sofa, he's lookin' for his supper
Wonderin', "What's become of me?"

I've got a double-o-eighteen Martin guitar in the Back seat of the car
Hey, I'm leaving Mississippi
With the radio on

'Cause when you can't find a friend
You've still got the radio
When you can't find a friend
You've still got the radio

The radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Listen to the radio

It's the radio
Listen to the radio
The radio

There's a moon across the border
In the Louisiana sky
I smell the Pontchartrain, I hear Silver Wings
And then, away Merle Haggard had to fly

That good ole boy will find a Band of Gold on the stereo
Hey, then my Mama's gonna call and say
Where's she gone?
He'll say, "Down the road with the radio on"

When you can't find a friend
You've still got the radio
And when you can't find a friend
You've still got the radio

The radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Listen to the radio

The radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Now listen to the radio

The radio
[Incomprehensible] down the road
[Incomprehensible]

Radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Listen to the radio

The radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Listen to the radio

The radio
Listen to the radio
The radio
Listen to the radio
