When you said it would never end
I thought that we were more than friends
That's the way it used to be
Can you really not see?
What you are doing to me my final words are
Can't You See

Trying, Trying, Trying to hard
To think about how we got this far
Trying, Trying, Trying to hard
To think about how we got this far
Please will you look at me?
Can you really not see?
There's a thousand steps to honesty
You ain't walked a single one

I never felt this way before
Till you brought me back to reality
Then I realized it was all a lie
Can you really not see?
What you are doing to me my final words are
Can't you see?

Trying, Trying, Trying to hard
To think about how we got this far
Trying, Trying, Trying to hard
To think about how we got this far
Please will you look at me?
Can you really not see?
It's a thousand steps to honesty
You ain't walked a single one
