Don't rely on pornography, to teach you the trades of intimacy

Don't matter how many girls you've laid down,

If you haven't learned to bring on melt down

Do you really, really want to please?

You've got to know, yes, how to tease

Chorus

You will drown in emotions

If you go deep inside

Oh go deep inside

But slow down and realise that you're deep inside

And don't forget to gaze in her eyes when you're deep
inside

You will drown in emotions

If you go deep inside

Won't you go deep inside

But slow down and realise that you're deep inside

And don't forget to gaze in her eyes when you're deep

Find a haven in her delicate ways

Expand it into more than just a craze

If you want to see her unwind

Explore her as if you were blind

Surrender and step into the maze

Be alert for love hits like a blaze

Repeat chorus

You will drown in emotions

If you go deep inside

Won't you go deep inside

But slow down and realise that you're deep inside

And don't forget to gaze in her eyes

When you're deep inside

Slow down and realise that you're deep inside

And don't forget to gaze in her eyes

When you're deep inside
