Love addiction x4

Day and Night
I see you in my dreams sleeping on a bed of thorns
Love Somebody Always waiting, waiting, waiting for love, you close your eyes Open your eyes, alright wake up, I am here standing by I love you, moonlight yeah, hold me tight
So loving sight, oh sweet

If only one single wish could come true
The red thread of fate would tie us together tightly Love addiction, you're the only one I look at Show me your affection, because I'm offering you all of myself
Love addiction, these racing feelings won't stop Show me your affection, I want to embrace all of you in my arms

Love addiction, you're the only one I look at
you all of myself
Love addiction, the flames in my heart are burning wildly Show me your affection, you are the only one in the world whom I will love
