You never heard it done like this
Who else could put it down like this?

(High Priest)

As we move with the scenery
Let's walk through this corporate machinery
This big P
Now what the deal is?
P let it fizz the wiz
The business is as is
Never saw this day coming
I think I'm in a great place to summon some of the illest
The killer
Still it gets sicker
The vocals like ghosts in the air
The lights flicker
I might vicar the mic
Write like I never knew sight
The block knows
The vatos
Hydraulics staring over pot-holes
My mind goes side bar
To climb inside these bars
For the people behind the 8-Ball
When fate calls
I'm the P to the R I Z M
And if not
Then why would I say I am
The alchemist
The Al-Qaeda
The biters light as rock
New era P
Therapy for lost MCs
It goes hands up
It goes heads high
Everybody move
K to the I
Big things coming through for you
It's that sickness
Call it the bird flu
Hands up

Heads High

Suddenly

Never mind if extended

I remember once invented

Get it before anyone crossed the line

In time for lessons

Instead that unleaded gasoline

Influenced your stream of consciousness

Deflating that ego

Didn't continue the argument

Shouldn't I mellow out though?

Inverted

Crafted through perfection

Spread it amongst the industry

Simply to apply the chemistry mentioned within me

Readjust

Centered

Mild-mannered

Temperature tampered

Ready for an overload

Unless solving the answer

I couldn't imagine establishing something else

Note to self-esteem

Lean a little bit close to your dream

Never listen to critics criticizing the scene

You never heard it done like this

Who else could put it down like this?
