Did you ever?
Not so much, that you can know this
Could you ask maid how many?
8 or 9

Will you do it anymore?
As soon as you walk out the door
Well I just wonder, did you ever?
All the time

Could I fix you once more?
No thanks, I just had one
Then how about a nice big
That will just be fine

Is there any special way?
No, whatever you say
Well I just wonder, did you ever?
All the time

Does he look like?
No, he taller and more handsome
Yeah, but he is old
Oh no he's young and he's in his prime

Does your father know of it?
I haven't told him yet
I just wonder, did you ever?
All the time

But just for all time sake
That will be much harder
Then how about
Well, are you sure you don't mind?

I know just thing for us
I'm afraid I'll miss my bus
I just wonder, did you ever?
All the time
