Seems to me, aint coming back
That's alright, still got my mic
cause its not to fast, what I gotta do
But how hard it is missing you

Anybodys seen me cry
That's alright, aint gonna die
Cause its not to fast, find someday new
But how hard it is loving you

I guess it should be me, it's true
But I keep on loving you
I guess its just wondering why
Sure am keeping my head up high

That's alright, birds sing till they die
No matter what happens, keep on flying high
That's alright if you say were through
But what ya don't wanna hear is hard to listen to

Seems to me, don't give a damn
That's alright, handle this fight
Cause it's not to fast, what i gotta do
But how hard it is missing you

Anybodys seen me cry
That's alright, aint gonna die
Cause its not to fast, find someday new
But how hard it is loving you

I guess it should be me, it's true
But i keep on loving you
i guess its just wondering why
Sure am keeping my head up high
That's alright, birds sing till they die
No matter what happens, keep on flying high
That's alright if you say were through
But what ya don't wanna hear is hard to listen to

That's alright, birds sing till they die
No matter what happens, keep on flying high
That's alright if you say were through

But what ya don't wanna hear is hard to listen to

It's alright, it's alright

I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)
I know he aint coming back (it's alright)

That's alright, birds sing till they die
No matter what happens, keep on flying high
That's alright if you say were through
But what ya don't wanna hear is hard to listen to

That's alright, birds sing till they die
No matter what happens, keep on flying high
That's alright if you say were through
But what ya don't wanna hear is hard to listen to
