On the avenue, you may be havin you a solid ball, but it ain't no ball

at all,

compared to the kicks when you dally in Charleston Alley

Maybe it don't look so hot, but beleive me, it's the spot where you can sure let your hair down

Everything's right, And you can boogy all night-

Say, man Charleston Alley is the play, man you can rally every cool cat on the avenue

And they'll say its true, if you're feelin blue, this is the place for you.

No goof and that's the truth

I dig Charleston Alley, and I'm here t' tell ya pally, Its a place where life is real,

I'm tellin you I never found a better deal

We know just how you feel

Ribs and pigs feet, the tastiest meat that you ever did eat

And a good piano player- a plinkin' an plunkin an playin them blues

I doubt if you'll ever be gayer

We know- (Tell us about what you know)

Where to play- (Tell us about where to go)

And we'll show- (You don't know what time it takes)

You the way (Lookin' for what shakes)

Well let me tell you that if you've come to dally,

Dig this crazy alley, And we know its where you're goin'to move

And this is not an idle boast.

Of all the many crazy alleys that we've went- Hilltop, O'Mally's,

None a' them could quite compare with red hot Charleston Alley

When you're rockin' and you're rollin to the rythm of the solid beat

You're gonna have t' stomp your feet And you're sure to hang around

Wiggin an' diggin the sounds.

So dig this vocal travelogue that we're singin everyone

'bout that circle by the dark sun, Charleston Alley is the place to be

We get our kicks from hicks who hurry and take in the great white way

We'll pick the Alley any day Charleston Alley is the place for me

Better get up if you're takin a trip take a tip.

On the avenue, you may be havin you a solid ball, but it
ain't no ball

at all,

compared to the kicks you get from Charleston Alley

If you should make the trip I'm pretty sure you'd really flip

So let your cares be, and baby make it down with me...

to Charleston Alley
