"Train To Sanity"

Hey man I wish I had a smoke, for which to take a drag
To help me ease these anxiety Oh the things I'd wish I'd done for you and the things I wish I said to you Seemed equal to the pain that I feel inside of me

Chorus:

So I take a puff, forget all that stuff
That makes me wonder why the hell you're gone
You just think of me yeah and I'll think of you And I'll ride your train to emptiness and I'll take mine
back to sanity

Well today you were gone and so's my lack of understanding
The way things could've been I wonder how, Hey but for now I'll just sulk in my own self pity And think about the times me and you used to have

(Chorus)

Here I sit, I finally got my wits about me
I don't think of you as far as you know
Hey man, here today and we're gone as fast tomorrow Feel your horrible joy my friends and soon you too will know

Yeah that you could take a puff, forget all that stuff
That makes me wonder why the hell you're gone
Girl you just think of me and I'll think of you
And I'll ride your train to emptiness and I'll take mine
back to sanity

Yeah, I'll ride your train to emptiness and I'll drive mine back from Tennessee
