on tower hill
all we are are children of a dying star i don't know if it's in my head

innocence struck dumb and pinned amid the roar whenever i look down i see the killing floor
i don't know if it's in my head
i don't know if it's in my...

i don't know
where you wanna go?

in my baby's arms
the sky disappears
as do the world's harms she's been drug for years i don't know if she's in my head

and the tower is filled with noise we're drinking from a bottle of whirlwind even outside my window the courtyard in crumblin

where you wanna go?
