I'd love to say
That love it comes easy

But I'd be lying
To tell you I got one of my one
Spent so much time trying to find the right connection
Somebody who echoes me

I'm standing all alone
In a crowded room
Deafened by the silence
Then there's you
The rhythm of your heart beats back at me
In harmony

I'm on the edge of love
So close I can't hear your touch
Been following signs
I'm questing the find
An echo of my heart

My soul has been calling out
Listening for just one sound
I wanna believe
Tell me could it be
An echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo

In your voice I hear my own reflection
A mirror image, exactly what I saw in my dream
In your eyes the deepest of affection
Finally a match for me

I'm standing all alone
In a crowded room
Deafened by the silence

Then there's you
The rhythm of your heart beats back at me
In harmony

I'm on the edge of love
So close I can't hear your touch
Been following signs
I'm questing the find
An echo of my heart

My soul has been calling out
Listening for just one sound
I wanna believe
Tell me could it be
An echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo

The symphony of you and me
Is now so sweet
My ears can't believe
So loud and clear
My heart it is
Now that you're here
I see

The echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart

I'm on the edge of love
So close I can't hear your touch
I'm questing the find
An echo of my heart

My soul has been calling out
Listening for just one sound
I wanna believe
Tell me could it be
An echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
Echo
Echo of my heart
Echo of my heart
