[Verse 1]

Ooohh

Ooohh

Ooh ooh

We should better turn around and say goodbye

You let me down one two three many times

This moment has been coming around for a while

Cause me missing you is going out of style

[Bridge]

Used to be my good luck charm (used to be my good luck charm)

But you never crossed my heart (but you never crossed my heart)

Now im seeing in the dark

Seeing who you really are oooh

[Chorus]

You're just another love illusion

You're never really there at all

I'm caught up in this superstition

Starting to believe im better off alone

You're just another love illusion

And you don't seem to care at all

So let me end up this confusion

Baby your spell ain't magic anymore

No no no

[Verse 2]

I was just like eve I took a bite

And your poison filled me up inside

Ooohh

I thought somehow without you I would die

Now im gonna get back to my life

[Bridge]

Used to be my good luck charm (used to be my good
luck charm)

But you never crossed my heart (but you never crossed my heart)

Now im seeing in the dark

Seeing who you really are oooh

[Chorus]

You're just another love illusion
You're never really there at all
I'm caught up in this superstition
Starting to believe im better off alone
You're just another love illusion
And you don't seem to care at all
So let me end up this confusion
Baby your spell ain't magic anymore

[Hook]

I'm done make believing
Cause you keep faking the real thing
I'm done make believing
Only if we could do to better this feeling
Oooh

Used to be my good luck charm
Now I see who you are
Ooooooh

[Chorus]

You're just another love illusion
You're never really there at all
I'm caught up in this superstition
Starting to believe im better off alone
You're just another love illusion
And you don't seem to care at all
So let me end up this confusion
Baby your spell ain't magic anymore

[fade till end]

It aint magic
Ooohh
No no nooo
Just a love illusion
Another love illusion
