Do I scare you? Do I talk a lot?
I think you're beautiful.
I could listen to the sound of your voice telling sad stories all through the night.

I could die of wanting you.
I could die of wanting you.

I don't know what you're saying -
all these prayers for rain.
Isn't this what you wanted?
I think I'm in trouble.
Trouble's my closest friend.
Here comes trouble.
It's found me again.

I could die of wanting you.
I could die of wanting you.
Maybe there's something wrong with me.
I keep thinking maybe it's just something wrong with me.
But I was thinking maybe you could be my secret.
Maybe we could keep this secret.
What if you just keep me for yourself?

Maybe you could be my secret. Maybe we could keep this secret.
What if I just keep you for myself?

I could die of wanting you.
I could die of wanting you.
I could die of wanting you.
I could die of wanting you.
