

Napalm Death "Malicious Intent"

Previous times you stuck by me
Relations fine undeniably
Mutual trust and honesty
The essential recipe

Two sides to a coin
Opinions numbered many
Resolve came with ease
Compromised and regret free

Right

The change of expression
A unit of friends and the chance to be free

Your thoughts on these cast a jealous light
A consensus of hate to accompany

A vindictive acid taste
Flows from your chalice
Valued friendships tainted
Martyr of malice

[Incomprehensible]

Then the final straw, violent intimidation
Self acclaimed pacification
Brushed aside for self-gratification
Blatant ignorance, martyr of malice
