Last chance to escape
Shall I forsake
All that I can take
To carry on

Insanity slips away
Greeting the new day

Believing is kneeling
Ignore what I'm feeling
The pressure of living
Is taking it's toll

Regrets that I'm thinking
The love that I'm [Incomprehensible]
The hope that we're sharing
Is a lost cause

Insanity slips away
Greeting the new day

Mishappen, thought I'd lost
Caressing chaos drops

Prelude to a drowning, burning vision
Pointless, selfish
Half the time I can't remember
Any of the childish lies

Mishappen, thought I'd lost
Caressing chaos drops
Suppressing unwanted thoughts
Expressing my only choice

Prelude to a drowning, burning vision
Pointless, selfish
Half the time I can't remember
Any of the childish lies
