"Troops Of Doom"

Total eclipse hides the earth
The night of doom has come
Antichrist soldiers are proclaimed
To send souls to the hell

Catastrophe and destruction
Mankind is slaughtered without mercy
Suphul clouds are in the air
Legions winds corrose the universe

The messiah, redeemers of mankind
Chained in the valley of hades
Crowds blinded by evil
Only death is real
Total destruction
Walls of churches
Stained by blood
Altars burning in the flames
The doom cries out for insanity

The nuclear war announces the end of the world
The mankind is buried and forgotten
Prophets foresee the doom
They foresee the triumph of your death
